

I am urging you to vote against petition 04-160. I offer only the following:
How is the increasing competition between "satellite" and "terrestrial" radio any different than the competition between "network," "cable" and "satellite" television companies?